Sworn Circulation of the Los Angeles Times.

For purposes of comparison the sworn statement below gives, first, the circulation of the Times on the 15th day of August, 1890, the day of the greatest circulation in this office, followed by the circulation figures at various periods since that date, showing the increase.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, ss. COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, ss. Personally appeared before me, H. G. Otis, president and general manager of the Times-Mirror Company, and George W. Crawford, foreman of the pressroom of the Los Angeles Times, who, being both duly sworn, depose and say that the circulation of the Los Angeles Times on the 15th day of August, 1890, was 6,750 copies; that the daily average circulation for said month was 6,713 copies; and that the daily average circulation for the months given below was as follows: For January, 1891, 5,382 copies; For February, 1891, 5,019 " For March, 1891, 5,443 " For April, 1891, 5,456 " and, further, that said circulation was bona fide in the strictest sense.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of April, 1891.

THE APRIL EXHIBIT IN DETAIL.

Advertisers Who Hire Newspaper Space Have a Right to Know the Circulation!

The circulation exhibit in detail for April is as follows:

For the week ended April 7, 1891, 58,880

For the week ended April 14, 1891, 58,060

For the week ended April 21, 1891, 57,980

For the week ended April 28, 1891, 62,805

For the 2 days ended April 30, 1891, 19,000

Total, 257,705

Average per day for the 30 days, 8456

A comparison of figures shows a net increase over the average circulation for August, 1890, of 1,743 copies.

The strike last week proved itself an utter failure. The boycott is a weak, malicious, impotent device of a very few selfish and irresponsible individuals. The Times defies it and them, and continues to employ organized labor, paying therefor more in wages annually than any rival establishment. Advertisers are counseled to no longer pay attention to lawless enemies of their best interests.

We stand ready to exhibit to advertisers our circulation books and pressroom reports at any time, as a verification of the claims above. Our charges are fixed on the only true basis, namely, the circulation of the Times-Mirror.

Guaranteed to be double that of any local competitive journal.

AGAINST MAXWELL

Not Acceptable for the Horticultural Bureau.

HANDLED WITHOUT GLOVES.

The San Francisco Board of Trade Opposed to His Confirmation—Speeches by Messrs. Mills and Hatch.

Opposition to the appointment of Walter S. Maxwell as chief of the bureau of horticulture and viticulture of the World's Fair, is increasing, and the San Francisco Board of Trade is exerting all its influence to stop his confirmation. A meeting of the board was held Tuesday night, at which Maxwell was handled without gloves. In its report of the meeting, the Examiner of Wednesday says:

STRONG OBJECTION TO MAXWELL.
The snapper at the end of a meeting was in relation to the appointment of Walter Maxwell as chief of the bureau of horticulture and viticulture. A. T. Hatch said that he had written to Chicago that only a small minority in this State endorsed Maxwell, while the indorsements of Gen. Chipman, Mr. De Young and others were not sufficient to carry the matter. He said in his opinion, the appointment should go to some other State rather than that Maxwell should get it.

A resolution was adopted recommending Gen. Chipman as superintendent of California's exhibit at the World's Fair, after W. H. Mills had made a short speech on the question. His remarks were not marked by his customary liberality of speech, and were to the effect that while he was anxious to support Mr. De Young in every possible way, he must oppose him in what he characterized as an attempt to foist an impracticable representative into such an important place. He ridiculed Mr. Maxwell's pretensions to the office, and declared that it would be better for the State to lose the honor of naming the commissioner in charge of Bureau B than to have Maxwell there.

In speaking on the same subject, A. T. Hatch of Suisun declared that Maxwell's qualifications were limited to planting potatoes and smart clothes. Mr. Hatch, being a practical horticulturist, much at work in his orchards, prefers stouter gear for his own wear and said that he should not be deceived by the display of the tailor's art on his own person, except at Christmas, and then he is quite a dandy man.

Seen after the meeting Mr. Willis said that his opposition to Maxwell was limited to his selection for the place most important to this State in the World's Fair. He knew that Maxwell was not competent. His qualifications for the duties of the place were limited to some years spent on a farm, and some experience in handling case goods which was not his brand. He might be able to impress Mr. De Young with the width of his experience, but then Mr. De Young has not so much knowledge of the business as Mr. Hatch and others who opposed Maxwell.

National Commissioner De Young seemed just a trifle nettled while speaking of the remarks made by several members of the State Board of Trade regarding the appointment of Walter Maxwell as chief of the bureau of horticulture.

"Mr. Mills," said the commissioner last night, "is constantly asserting himself in every movement made here as the representative of the railroad company. I don't know that anyone has constituted Mr. Mills or Mr. Hatch the representative of any movement made here as the representative of the railroad company. I don't know that anyone has constituted Mr. Mills or Mr. Hatch the representative of any movement made here as the representative of the railroad company. I don't know that anyone has constituted Mr. Mills or Mr. Hatch the representative of any movement made here as the representative of the railroad company."

"Without any knowledge of this fact, and as the solicitation of Mr. Hatch and several more of his friends, I recommended Mr. Chipman. In Chicago I found Mr. Forsythe making Maxwell's fight, while I was making Chipman's. It is apparent that if both of us insist on different candidates it would be a good excuse to refuse to give California any consideration whatever in the matter. I received Mr. Forsythe's letter, and with him entered into an arrangement to join forces and try to win for Maxwell. I did win. Maxwell was appointed, and his appointment was confirmed by the board of control of the national commission."

"To my surprise I find men in this State who are so easily won by their narrow prejudices that if they can't have the men of their choice they prefer the State to lose a great advantage. In their narrow minds they pervert the truth. Maxwell is horticulturist, and they know it. In addition he is a first-class business man and possesses great executive ability. He is a business man, and for that reason should have the support of the community. The effect it will have before the country. The Southern California Horticultural Society some weeks ago indorsed Mr. Chipman for the position, and at a meeting held Monday night, when the matter was discussed, declined to go back on their action. Mr. Buckner, representative of the American horticulturist, was present, and the result of the meeting was telegraphed East. Realizing the effect which this action would have on the country, it virtually amounted to Maxwell's repudiation by his own people. His friends have been trying to get the effect counteracted, if possible. The following notice, sent yesterday, speaks for itself and shows what has been accomplished. Whether the plan will succeed remains to be seen."

IN THIS CITY.

In this city Maxwell's friends have been trying to work up sentiment in his favor. They urge that, as a matter of local pride, Los Angeles should support Maxwell for the place, whether he has any qualifications or not. No claim is made that Maxwell is a practical horticulturist, or that he has any executive ability or is a business man, but they claim that he is a Los Angeles man, and for that reason should have the support of the community. The effect it will have before the country. The Southern California Horticultural Society some weeks ago indorsed Mr. Chipman for the position, and at a meeting held Monday night, when the matter was discussed, declined to go back on their action. "In accordance with a written request received from a large number of members of the Southern California Horticultural Society, a special meeting is hereby called to be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Friday evening, May 22, at 8 o'clock to consider the advisability of indorsing the appointment of Walter S. Maxwell as chief of the bureau of horticulture at the Columbian Exposition at Chicago. The confirmation of a California man in this position is a matter of great importance, not only to Southern California, but to the State at large, and consequently it is of the utmost importance that every member be present."

Death of Jimmy Fogarty.
An Associated Press dispatch from Philadelphia, received yesterday, gives the following concerning the death of Jimmy Fogarty:

"James G. Fogarty, the great center-fielder of the Philadelphia club, died yesterday of consumption, at St. Joseph's Hospital. His illness was the result of a severe cold contracted on his return here last winter from California. He was born in San Francisco and was 29 years of age. Fogarty's parents reside in this city, and when not engaged, he spent his time with them. During the winter and spring both Jimmy and his brother were here, and played in several ball games. Fogarty had many friends in this city, who will regret to learn of his death."

Compton Flower Festival.

The Compton flower festival, which opened in Shreve's Hall, that place, last evening, was a great success. The floral decorations far exceeded expectations, and were elegant and artistic. Quite a number of handsome set places were arranged about the hall. The programme which been arranged, consisting of music, recitations, fan drill, tableaux, etc., was very interesting, those taking part acquitting themselves very creditably. Over three hundred were in attendance. The entertainment will be repeated this evening, when an interesting musical and literary programme will be given.

THE JACKSON-CORBETT FIGHT.
Great interest in the Contest in the City.

A deep interest was taken in sporting circles in the fight last night regarding the Jackson-Corbett fight in San Francisco, and in the early part of the evening considerable betting was done, but as the fight progressed the Jackson men cooled off to a marked degree, and the admirers of Corbett put on a puzzled look and did not seem to know exactly how to size things up.

Bulletins announcing each round were received at several sporting centers in the city, and a couple of enterprising young men engaged Turner Hall and had a private wire put in. They charged an admission fee but that did not keep the crowd out, and before the first round was announced every seat in the hall was filled and standing room was a premium.

A well-known pugilist was present and pool-selling was rushed for all it was worth. Early in the evening the odds were in favor of Jackson, but after the thirtieth round was fought, Corbett stock bounded up to a certain extent, and what little betting was done was about even.

It is hard to say how much money was put up, but it is safe to say that more money will change hands on this fight in Los Angeles than ever before on any prize-fight. The sports took a deep interest in the fight, and were free with their money than ever before.

The colored population was out in force, and they put up every cent they could get their hands on, and were ready to fight any one who even intimated that their countryman would get whipped.

At midnight, when the forty-first was fought, Jackson seemed to have the best of it, and his backers were wild with joy.

At this time the chances for the longest contest ever fought on this Coast were good.

At 10 o'clock the fifty-seventh round was fought, and at that time there was no change. Interest kept up, however, until the close, when, after the sixty-first round, which was the usual of the men to fight, the fight was declared off, and the crowd left the hall. While the result was a disappointment, Corbett's admirers expressed themselves as well pleased with the showing made by him.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

THE RECEPTION TO CARNIVAL WORKERS POSTPONED.

Meeting of the Board of Directors to Be Held Today, When a Statement Will Probably Be Made.

The Reception Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which had in hand the preparation for the reception of the delegates and managers to the Chicago orange carnival, met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and after talking the matter over briefly they decided to postpone it indefinitely, or until the missing Secretary Hanchette is heard from. They then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

The committee has made all arrangements and is now ready to give it all time. This evening the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in regular session, when the orange carnival managers will probably make a statement regarding money matters. MILES IN COURT.

The Preliminary Examination Set for Thursday.

WORKING ON THE MYSTERY.

The Police Still Refuse to Talk—Miller's Wounds and the Probable Manner in Which They Were Inflicted.

George H. Miles, who was arrested by the police Wednesday afternoon, charged with the murder of his partner, George W. Miller, in their saloon, the Carlton, on Spring street, Saturday night last, was arraigned before Justice Owens yesterday. The accused was represented by Shinn & Ling. He listened very coolly to the reading of the complaint, and when it was concluded, merely stated that he wished for a speedy examination. Miles declined to make any statement for publication, acting under the advice of his attorneys. Justice Owens set the preliminary examination for Thursday next, the 28th inst. Miles was removed to the County Jail.

SPILL REFUSE TO TALK.
Chief Glass, who asked yesterday if there were any new developments in the case, stated that the detectives were still hard at work, and while he had reason to believe that they were making fair progress in gathering up the facts, there was nothing that he felt justified in giving out for publication at this time.

When asked if Miles had made any statement, he declined to state whether or not. In fact, he stated that he preferred to say nothing about the case until the preliminary examination was held as it might interfere with working up the case, besides which he might do Miles an injustice, and this he wished to avoid.

At this time the chances for the longest contest ever fought on this Coast were good.

At 10 o'clock the fifty-seventh round was fought, and at that time there was no change. Interest kept up, however, until the close, when, after the sixty-first round, which was the usual of the men to fight, the fight was declared off, and the crowd left the hall.

While the result was a disappointment, Corbett's admirers expressed themselves as well pleased with the showing made by him.

Not by tricky advertising, but by merit only, Cleveland's baking powder wins its way. Everything used in it is plainly printed on every can, and it stands every test that can be made.

Master of the grand lodge of Arkansas,
Dear Sir: I thought I would write and ask you to send me a copy of the constitution of the order, as I am a Mason and I want to know the rules of the order. I am a Mason and I want to know the rules of the order. I am a Mason and I want to know the rules of the order.

We all have a brother in the field to make a living. I have a brother who is 15 years old, and a sister 11 and 10 years old. If I had an education we could make a living without any help. I have written to show that my father was in good standing and if it is necessary to send it you can write and I will send it to you. I will be glad to help you in any way I can and cannot help ourselves. We are the orphans of John T. Brooks who was in good standing and he died.

Bro. Van Hoose's interest was aroused to such a degree that he journeyed to that place where the child lived. He found all her representations to be true and issued an appeal for dime contributions. This was generously responded to, and she became the adopted daughter of the Masons. She is now preparing to begin her last year at college, and Bro. Van Hoose again appeals for aid.

Notes.
The brave fire chief of Jersey City, who lost his life while in the discharge of his duty at a recent fire in that city, was the past master of Jersey City lodge, No. 74, and for many years one of its trustees. He was buried with Masonic honors, R. W. Bro. Joseph E. Moore, D. D. G. M. of the Seventh district, officiating.

The Freemasons, of Toronto, is advocating a Masonic home in the province of Ontario.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.
Plans for the Coming Conclave in Kansas.

Kansas City is already beginning to make arrangements to relieve the biennial encampment of the uniformed rank, which will take place in that city simultaneously with the sitting of the supreme lodge in August, 1892. General Carnahan says that the camp is to raise at least $35,000. It should pay all expenses of providing for the camps and for the prizes. He thinks that from 12,000 to 14,000 members of the rank will attend.

Aldine lodge, No. 139, of Chicago, made 116 knights and received 11 by card during the term ending Dec. 31, 1890; received $3,335 and paid out $1,257, making a net increase in the treasury of $2,078.

Brigadier General M. J. Severance, of the uniformed rank, is once more a widower, having suffered the loss of his second wife, who died some time since.

Roma lodge, No. 147, of San Francisco, the only lodge working in the state in the Italian language, initiated twenty-one "strangers" during the past term. Not over four years old, this lodge now has 216 members upon whom tax has been paid.

Ohio leads all other grand jurisdictions in the strength of their uniform rank. She now has 15 divisions.

In Wisconsin and Ohio the endowment rank has made excellent progress recently. A number of lodges in the former state have been visited by Brother John B. Powell with splendid results, and in the latter Brother G. H. Kelly is making a tour of a number of enterprises. Pythian towns with the best of success, a section having been organized at nearly every place visited.

In some of the West End restaurants in London as much as twenty-eight shillings a week is paid by a waiter for the right to look after the wants of wealthy diners. Tips there vary at a time between 6d. and 1s. 6d., and a first class man may reckon to clear a solid 6s. a week.

The Presbyterian General Assembly Meets.

Prof. Green of Princeton Chosen Moderator by Acclamation.

Gossip About the Assembly's Action in the Briggs Heresy Case.

Baptists in Session at Cincinnati and Philadelphia—Secretary Moorehouse Wants an Investigation.

By Telegram to The Times.

DETROIT, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] The one hundred and third annual meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly convened here this morning. Rev. Dr. Radcliffe of Detroit invoked the divine blessing. After singing, Rev. Dr. Patton, president of Princeton College, read the sixteenth chapter of Isaiah. Rev. Dr. Moore of Cincinnati, moderator of the last assembly, delivered the opening assembly sermon from John 11, 17: "For God sent not His son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved." Dr. Moore said:

God gives eternal life to the individual believing here and now, but the salvation of the world is accomplished through personal salvation of husbands, wives, parents, children, masters, servants, rulers, subjects. The unprotected have been hideously oppressed and therefore a dangerous servile class was elevated to the position of brethren of Christ. Labor is now made honorable. Before he came, enjoyment and self-indulgence were the object of human aspiration. For this the church substituted helplessness. The Presbyterian church has in the main been in helpful touch with the needs of this world. Agitation, upheaval, cannot fail to make necessary ruin. Like the heaving of the sea, it may purify. Compulsion and legislation will not do this, unless there is a change in the heart and the purified individual diffused through society. Law was never so good as now, although there is too much of it. But we need more quantity and quality it is useless or worse unless rightly interpreted, administered and enforced, and for this there must be such work as only religion can effect. I am hopeful that is what I may call godly dissatisfaction with our efficiency in leaving society—the family, state and church, the three great factors for alleviating social, political and economic evils. All three are of divine institution and can never do their best work except as the life of Christ pervades them. After prayer by Dr. Moore organization of the assembly was perfected, the Committee on Arrangements reported and the assembly took a recess till 3 p. m.

At the afternoon session nominations for moderator being in order, Rev. Dr. Dissey of Philadelphia nominated Rev. Prof. William H. Green of Princeton Theological Seminary. Rev. George D. Baker seconded the nomination, and Dr. Green was elected moderator by acclamation. The newly elected moderator was then escorted to the platform where the retiring moderator welcomed him in a brief speech.

Moderator Green replied, thanking the assembly for the distinction and token of esteem. He accepted with a deep sense of unfitness, but feeling that the task of presiding over such an assembly as this must be comparatively light where all the members are animated by one spirit, seeking one great end, and have as their supreme desire the promotion of the glory of God and advancement of the kingdom of our blessed Savior.

Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the Detroit Post-Office church, welcomed the assembly in behalf of the Reception Committee and he presented the moderator a Michigan gavel made of wood from a Pontiac oak that witnessed the massacre of 1637 at the old fort.

The Committee on Concensus of Creed reported that it had held meetings and sent circulars to the reformed churches holding the Presbyterian system through the world. The death of Dr. Howard Crosby was spoken of as a great loss to the committee and Dr. Dissey was recommended as a suitable man to take his place.

Dr. Mackintosh reported, as to the missionary magazine, the Church at Home and Abroad. It is in winning favor. Other denominations are coming over to appreciate it greatly. There is great neglect, however, to adopt the recommendation of the Assembly that Presbyterian families should take it. It could be made a quarter of a cent cheaper if 75,000 who could afford it would subscribe to it.

Dr. Townie, chairman of the Committee on Proof Texts states that last year the committee reported to the Assembly that they had completed their vision on proof texts of the confession of faith. Since then the same had been done for the large catechism.

Adjourned till tomorrow.

The case of Dr. Briggs may involve a curious dilemma. Either the Assembly must prejudice the impending trial of Prof. Briggs before the presbytery by a vote for his transfer to the chair of biblical theology, or it must endanger the validity of its veto next year, should such action then seem desirable, by postponing its decision. Another course is open. The assent of the Assembly to his transfer or a new appointment may be withheld on the ground of his generally admitted courtesy toward his opponents and indiscretions in his method and time of promulgating beliefs that upon their face are in conflict with the standard. It is rumored that Briggs has announced his determination to contest every point, carrying them into the civil courts and to the highest courts and to bring in points involving his civil rights and thus keeping up the conflict, it may be, for years.

THE BAPTISTS.

Secretary Moorehouse Acquitted of Charges Preferred.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] The Baptists continued the subject of home missions today, during which they disposed of the troublesome question concerning the business integrity of the secretary of the society, Dr. Moorehouse, against whom charges have been published. Before making their report, the Nominating Committee read a communication from Dr. Moorehouse, in which the doctor says:

The allegations or suspicion that I ever improperly used the funds of the American Baptist Home Mission Society are without foundation. A most rigid investigation is invited on this point. The executive board, after a thorough examination, unanimously affirmed that there had been no tampering with the accounts. There had not been any loss whatever to the funds of the institution. I have stated to all parties concerned, as I now state to you, that for the irregularities I am profoundly sorry. In three instances my sympathies were deeply moved for friends in distress. In the fourth I have a justification to make for myself. It is true that for a few months I engaged in some limited stock speculations. The board indeed has unanimously acquitted me of any wrong intent, and has expressed confidence in my integrity. Many members of the board protested against my resignation as corresponding secretary. Nevertheless, in the judgment of the committee change should seem desirable, shall unhesitatingly acquiesce in your decisions.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—The sixty-eighth General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church of North America was opened here today. Rev. W. H. Gredin of this city was elected moderator. Rev. W. J. B. Crawford of New York having declined.

Reports were received from committees in the afternoon.

United Brethren.

DECATUR (Ill.), May 21.—At today's session of the Women's Missionary Association of the United Brethren church it was decided to raise $3000 by voluntary subscription for a church building at Portland, Or., and the association pledged itself to support a minister there for five years. The nominating committee decided to suggest the election of a board of officers almost the same as last year.

THE THIRD PARTY.

ITS NATIONAL COMMITTEE GETS TO WORK.

Prominent Republicans at Washington Do Not Think the Movement of Much Consequence.

By Telegram to The Times.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] Bright and early today the new National Committee of the People's party got together for its first session. Everybody but members of the committee were excluded. Robert Schilling of Milwaukee was elected secretary, and M. C. Rankin of Terre Haute treasurer. The members then busied themselves in filling out vacancies that had been left in the National Committee as a result of the rush that preceded the adjournment of the conference. The National Committee is presided over by Chairman Taubeneck.

It was resolved to authorize the issue of a call for voluntary contributions. It was also resolved that a national executive committee be formed, to consist of a chairman, secretary and treasurer, and four members. The four elected are George F. Washburn of Massachusetts, G. F. Galther of Alabama, Ignatius Donnelly of Minnesota, and J. H. Davis of Texas. The committee adjourned subject to the call of the Executive Committee. This committee met immediately afterward and elected Robert Schilling permanent secretary and M. C. Rankin permanent treasurer.

Resolutions were adopted providing for the appointment of State, county and local committees of the People's party in each State for systematic organization and furtherance of the work; that the secretaries of each committee shall, as soon as constituted, report the names of officers and members to Robert Schilling at Milwaukee.

In the absence of the executive committee, chairman and secretary are given authority to organize in any State or Territory not represented at the Cincinnati convention, by the appointment of a committee of three members who shall proceed to organize as in other States.

The Nationalists met this morning and adopted a resolution heartily endorsing the National Union platform.

THE NEW PARTY.

How It is Viewed by Prominent Men at Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] A number of public men were interviewed today on the new political organization formed in Cincinnati. Secretary of the Treasury Foster thinks the broad and generous public policy of the Republican party is such that there is no room for a third party. A new political organization could not do anything necessary to our material comfort or prosperity without stealing Republican thunder. The wildest schemes of the third party advocates cannot have lodgment in the minds of sensible people and movements based on their eccentricities are necessarily ephemeral.

Senator Chandler thought the platform rather dangerous with the possible exception of the plank relating to the Government control of railroads.

Representative Crain of Texas said: "It will help the Democrats and hurt the Republicans—only that and nothing more."

CORNERING WHEAT.

French Farmers Will Block the Game of Speculators.

PARIS, May 21.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Eclair of this city publishes today interviews with officials of the ministry of agriculture in reference to the projected wheat corner. These officials said they did not believe the people who are engineering the corner would succeed in attaining the object in view, as French farmers refused to cooperate with the manipulators of the wheat deal. French farmers, officials of the ministry of agriculture said, always sold their produce on spot and would not enter into contracts with any large syndicate, especially a foreign one. French crops are in a very critical condition. The home supply, they said, would fall short by 20,000,000 hectolitres. If the present rainy weather continues the result will be disastrous to farmers.

THE DAVIS WILL CONTEST.

BUTTE (Mont.), May 21.—The contestants in the Davis will case state that they will prove to the satisfaction of the court that the case comes up for trial, that J. R. Eddy wrote the disputed Davis will. In substantiation of this claim they state that J. B. Weaver, Jr., of Des Moines, Iowa, has letters written by Eddy to which he signed the name of James Davis.

An Indiana Lynching.

EVANSVILLE (Ind.), May 21.—A negro named Jennings yesterday waylaid and criminally assaulted the 13-year-old daughter of George Bowles. The negro was captured today and lynched by Bowles's neighbors in spite of frantic pleas for mercy. After he was strung up the men filled his body with bullets.

THE ITATA'S CASE.

More Talk About Her Being Surrendered.

Navy Officials Deny Any Negotiations for That Purpose.

The Charleston Was Due at Panama Yesterday.

The Former Engineer of the Itata Tells of Her Trip North—She is a Slow Vessel.

By Telegram to The Times.

PARIS, May 21.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Chilean agents in this city, who represent the Congressional or insurgent party, declare an arrangement has been made between the Congressional party and the United States authorities by which the insurgent steamer Itata, which is now being chased down the west coast of America by the U. S. S. Charleston, will not be seized by force by the Charleston or by any other vessel of the American navy. The terms of this arrangement, the agents here state, are that the fugitive craft will be handed over by the insurgents to the United States authorities pending settlement of the question in dispute as to whether or not the Itata violated the neutrality laws. This action, they say, is taken without prejudice to the Congressional party, inasmuch as the Itata has enough start of the Charleston to enable her to reach a port in possession of the Congressional party, and to unload there before she is surrendered to the United States.

Whitehead, United States minister, in an interview today was asked if it were true that at the request of the Chilean delegates, he had communicated with the United States Government asking that the orders sent to the Charleston be countermanded and that the United States Government acceded to their request. Reid said: "I have had no negotiations with the agents of the Congressional party. They called upon me. I listened to what they had to say, but I refused to hold any official communication with my Government in regard to their request."

DENIED AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The Paris dispatch stating the Itata is to be peacefully surrendered to the United States by the insurgents upon her arrival in Peru, was shown to officials of the Navy and State departments today, but was not deemed worthy to discuss the matter publicly. Nevertheless it can be stated positively there have been no negotiations as reported between the insurgent agents in France or elsewhere and this Government respecting the Itata. There is reason to believe that this Government expects the Itata to be peacefully surrendered to the United States by the insurgents when she reaches Chile, but that when so rendered, the vessel will be found to have discharged her arms and munitions of war.

The object of libeling the ship in California was to determine whether she violated the neutrality laws, and the status of the insurgents must be judicially determined as a preliminary. If it is held that they are belligerents, the insurgents will have realized substantial advantage and all their risk is the loss by forfeiture of the empty vessel.

Nothing has been heard at the department yet of the Charleston. She was due at Panama today, but may be she proceeded straight on to Payta, Peru.

THE ITATA'S SPEED.

Her Former Engineer Tells of Her Trip from Chile.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] John S. Waterson, an American engineer, employed on the Chilean steamer Itata and who accompanied that vessel from Iquique to San Diego, where he left her, has arrived here and given a statement of the steamer's trip. The Itata was accompanied from Iquique by the Esmeralda. After leaving Africa on April 8, the crew was informed that San Diego was to be the next port of call. Three days were spent at Galapagos Islands by the crew of the Itata in transferring coal in small boats from that vessel to the Esmeralda, and at Cape San Lucas another transfer of coal, occupying three days was made. The Itata at the time of leaving Iquique had her bunkers full of coal.

Waterson confirms the report that at Cape San Lucas the captain of the Esmeralda took command of the Itata, the captain of the latter vessel, a Dane, assuming command of the Esmeralda.

Waterson says that from Iquique to about half way to San Lucas, the Itata made forty-eight revolutions every minute with sixty knots of steam. This was equal to nine and one-half knots an hour. During the remainder of the run she made forty-four revolutions with fifty knots of steam, and after leaving Cape San Lucas made fifty-four revolutions with seventy knots, or equal to ten and one-half knots an hour, which was told was equal to the best speed she had made on her trial trip.

DEATH AND HAVOC.

Later Accounts of the Cyclone's Work in Missouri.

MEXICO (Mo.), May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] The cyclone which passed over the northern portion of Andrain county yesterday, killed three persons and seriously injured a score of others of whom four will die. The track of the storm was about one hundred yards wide. The residences of Alexander Carter, William Rowell, the Dillard brothers, B. Kunkel, George Crane, William Yoetmeier, T. B. Ham, Valentine Erdell, S. S. Norris, A. Ahlfeldt, J. M. Menefee and John Doerger were literally torn to pieces. Kunkel received injuries from which he died within an hour. His sons Otto and Henry were severely hurt. Yoetmeier, his wife and child and Clarence Harvey, who were visiting there, were badly cut and bruised. S. S. Norris's house was blown to pieces, and seven members of the family were injured. Three of them, Miss Gertrude Fletcher, Mrs. Seale and a small child, cannot live.

Close at hand was the house of John Doerger, which was also demolished. His 3-year-old daughter was killed, and the remainder of the family, five in number, were painfully injured. All of Doerger's stock was killed.

Three men—Mason Kerman, Thomas and Homer Rogers—seeing the storm lay flat on the ground and clasped hands. Homer, who was in the middle, was killed, while the other two were uninjured.

In the western part of the county the worst damage was done at the farm of J. A. Harrison. His son was blown half a mile and lodged in a tree and fatally injured. Hundreds of cattle, hogs and sheep were killed.

A CROOKED CONCERN.

Failure of a Large Firm—Charges of Fraud.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] A morning paper says: The failure of the insurance brokerage firm of Satterlee, Bostwick & Martin is announced. From charges made by the most reputable underwriters of New York, and from statements of the president and resident managers of the greatest insurance corporation in the country, it appears that for nearly a year certain members of the firm have systematically misappropriated funds placed in their hands for payment of various corporations. The failure was unavoidable in consequence of these transactions. The amount involved in this neglect to pay premiums and losses which this firm collected as agents reached nearly $150,000. But owing to sacrifices of property owned by the two elder members of the house, this sum has been lessened considerably. There are, however, still outstanding a number of obligations incurred by the method used by the firm of brokers whose aggregate shows how loosely are conducted the transactions between the insurance companies and the brokers.

HUMAN BRUTES.

SHOCKING STORY OF CRIME IN KENTUCKY.

A Young Lady Subjected to Frightful Brutality by Two Rejected Suitors—Swift and Summary Vengeance.

By Telegram to The Times.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.), May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] A story of brutal ravishing, murder and swift vengeance comes from Eastern Kentucky. Near Sandy Hook, Mand Floner, a beautiful young school teacher, was met while riding through the woods by George and John Wilcox, rejected suitors. They dragged her from her horse, breaking her legs in the struggle. They took her to a lonely cabin, drew lots as to which should have her and demanded that she agree to marry John, to whose lot she fell. She refused.

They tried to set the broken limb, and kept her a prisoner in the cabin chained to the wall. When found by her brother and intended husband she told her story and said she had also been brutally outraged.

The Wilcoxes were captured and shot to death by the brother and lover.

AN IOWA SENSATION.

Arrest of a Prominent Railway Man for "Padding" Mails.

DES MOINES (Iowa), May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] The Federal grand jury has indicted J. C. Newton for conspiring to defraud the Government by "padding" the mails. Newton is vice-president and general manager of the Des Moines and Kansas City road. During April the mail matter was weighed on the trains. It is charged that Newton secured a large quantity of old newspapers and dropped them back and forth on his line, making a sufficient difference in weight to increase the compensation for carrying the mails from $5000 to $10,000 a year. The indictment caused great surprise here. Newton is a millionaire. He came to Iowa from Holyoke, Mass. It is said he shipped a lot of the papers to relatives in California and Texas.

WORLD'S FAIR MATTERS.

Another False Report Circulated About the Exposition.

CHICAGO, May 21.—[By the Associated Press.] Secretary Butterworth, of the World's Fair directory, today received a telegram from the Austrian consul in New York, saying that a statement was published there to the effect that the World's Fair would have to be postponed until 1894. In reply President Baker and Secretary Butterworth sent a reply characterizing the report as false and malicious. It is supposed it grew out of an interview with ex-Mayor Cregier published in St. Paul, in which he expressed the opinion that the fair could not be got ready for opening in 1893.

Brewers in Session.

CLEVELAND (O.), May 21.—The National Brewers' Association today decided that a special building for the display of the brewers at the World's Fair was not practicable. The Committee on Restrictive Legislation recommended that a formal protest be sent to Congress against the excessive duty on imported raw materials used by brewers. Ellis Wainwright of St. Louis was elected president, James Lieberman of Brooklyn, treasurer and Henry Clausen of New York and Leo Ernest of Chicago as vice-presidents.

Coming Appointments.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Attorney-General Miller had an interview this afternoon with the President and will take up the question of the appointment of land court judges within a few days, and the appointments will probably be announced next week. The Attorney-General said the appointment of circuit judge, under the act passed by the last Congress, will not be announced till Congress meets.

A Little Railroad Deal.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Northern Pacific directors today agreed to the terms under which the Baltimore and Ohio Railway will use the facilities of the Chicago Northern Pacific Company as a Chicago entrance. These terms, it is stated, will provide for the payment by the Baltimore and Ohio of a sum equal to about 2 per cent on the Chicago Northern Pacific bonds.

Rebuking Liars and Boasters.

Our Saxon forefathers had many methods of rebuking liars and boasters, and three object lessons in reproof have come down in proverb to our time. One was the presentation of a cake to a confirmed prevaricator, whence the proverb, "He takes the cake." At feasts a large wooden knife was sometimes provided by the host to be presented to the most outrageous boaster of the company, and by him to be retained until he found a braggart more intemperate than himself. The third was the presentation of a whalebone to a man noted for his lack of regard for the truth, as a hint that he would need to sharpen his invention if he intended to continue in the business. A slenderer was sometimes set in a pill with a whistle hung about his neck, the whistones of three centuries ago being provided with a hole, and by means of a cord were hung from the belts of butchers and other persons who were obliged frequently to use them.

RECOMMENDATIONS

GIVEN TO

DR. WOH,

The Celebrated Chinese Physician.

No person will be treated who will not abstain from Opium or Liquors.

For many years I have been troubled with lung disease, which finally ended in asthma and consumption. I consulted with the best physicians I could find but they did me no benefit, but on the contrary I got worse and worse until I was told by one of them I could not recover. Dr. Woh took me in this condition. He has in two months time entirely cured me. I most cordially recommend him to all sufferers.

M. F. WESSEL,

May 1st, 1891.

For eight months past my wife was a great sufferer from female troubles. For days at a time her pain was so severe that no rest could be obtained or sleep at night. Unwillingly I forced her to visit Dr. Woh, the Chinese physician. The doctor undertook to cure her and now with grateful hearts we confess to a complete recovery in her case.

For quite a number of years I have been a great sufferer and paid out large sums of money for doctors and medicines. My disease was claimed by some to be Bright's disease, others said it was gravel, but I could not find relief. I got worse and worse until my life was despaired of. The treatment and operations to which I submitted were terrible. Finally at the request of a friend who had been cured by Dr. Woh I consented to submit my case to his hands. The doctor has cured me thousands of similar testimonials that space alone prevents further publication of them here.

A GENTLE DOWNPOUR.

Drops Not Likely to be Injured by the Rain.

RECEPTION AT THE CARLTON.

Public School Statistics for the Past Month—A Smart Clock—Notes, Personal and Brevities.

About 8 o'clock Wednesday afternoon it began raining in midwinter fashion. The downpour was almost continuous until bedtime, and during the night showers were frequent. Early yesterday morning it rained quite hard and showers continued at frequent intervals during the day. Up to 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon Dr. Riggs's gauge registered half an inch of precipitation.

It is generally conceded that the effect of the rain will be beneficial rather than otherwise. The hay stacked in the fields will doubtless be somewhat injured, and some of the growing barley was blown over by the wind. Fears are expressed by some that the rain will prove injurious to the young oranges, but it will not cause them to drop off unless the sun shines very hot immediately after the clouds clear away. Last June, it will be remembered, the hot wave did considerable injury to the Navela, but the seedlings and Mediterranean sweets were not affected.

Among the results of secondary importance brought about by the rain, might be mentioned the recent discovery of an unpleasant amount of mud on the business part of Colorado street (which was to have been paved and is not), increased trade among the umbrella and rubber-boots men, with a corresponding decrease in other channels of business; the postponement of several pleasure excursions, and the use of a vast amount of unsupervised language on the part of men whose business kept them out of doors when it was raining hardest.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE.

A Reception Tendered Dr. and Mrs. Garvin.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church tendered Rev. and Mrs. Garvin a pleasant reception last night at the Carlton parlors.

The rooms and main hallway were tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The Reception Committee, composed of the elders of the church and their wives, together with Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Phillips, introduced the guests to Rev. and Mrs. Garvin. During the evening Mrs. Garvin and Mrs. Phillips rendered an instrumental duet, the Misses Hall gave a vocal duet, an instrumental solo was rendered by Mrs. Nash, and an instrumental duet by Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Biggins. Others present contributed to the evening's amusement. Later on refreshments in the way of ice cream and cake were served. The whole affair passed off in a delightful manner, and will serve to more closely unite the bonds that bind together pastor and people.

The credit of the floral decorations is due to Miss Pickrell, Miss Eney, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Rogers and Miss Phillips. Mrs. Dr. Allen and Mrs. W. H. Wiley constituted the Committee on Invitations.

ON THE STREET.

Observations Made from an Upstairs Window.

One out of every three men will stop to handle a bicycle leaning against a post. Turning the pedal is a favorite amusement among this class.

Few young men and less young ladies can get by the door of a confectionery establishment. If the candy don't catch them the soda water will.

The man who does nothing can be distinguished by his slow gait and the anxious look on his face. He is weighed down with imaginary cares, and is always on the lookout for some one, no matter who anyone who will listen to him talk a few moments.

Those who follow banking pursuits can be readily picked out by the handsome walking-sticks which they invariably carry.

A large proportion of the men and women pedestrians are attracted by a handsome shop window.

If you see a party of distinguished-looking gentlemen engaged in earnest discussion on the sidewalk, you can set them down for directors of rival water companies every time.

A good deal of harmless flirting is carried on between some of the handsome business men and the pretty girls who trip by their stores and offices.

Will Entertain.

This evening Mrs. Thomas Banbury will entertain, at her residence on Old Fair Oaks avenue, the members of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Baptist church, together with their friends. A pleasant social time is anticipated.

A Great Timepiece.

John F. Barnes has made a wonderful timepiece of an old-fashioned clock left him by his grandfather. By means of numerous attachments perfected by Mr. Barnes the clock registers the phases of the moon, gives the temperature, indicates the day of the month, week and year, and tells the time accurately, striking every quarter of an hour, beside performing numerous other offices which the ordinary clock would shrink to undertake.

BREVITIES.

Yesterday's overland arrived on time.

Travel was light on the railroads yesterday. Pretty nearly time for a show at the Opera House.

The lively stables have felt the effect of the rain.

Company B will indulge in a squad shoot tomorrow.

Mrs. Kuntz expects to leave for the East in a few days.

City Council meets in regular session tomorrow afternoon.

There was no tennis meet yesterday on account of the rain.

M. S. Lowenthal of San Francisco is registered at Hotel Green.

There is some money up in Pasadena on the Jackson-Corbett fight.

E. W. Giddings is steadily improving, and his recovery is now assured.

The improvement on the interior of the Carlton is about half completed.

The Woman's Relief Corps social will be given this evening in the Doty Block.

The smoking cars with the yellow exteriors on the Terminal road are poorly lighted.

The grounds about Prof. Lowe's new residence property are being beautified by new trees and shrubbery.

The Masons will soon have new and handsome quarters fitted up in the Smith Block, on Colorado street.

Jesse Milleson, a capitalist of Medford, Ill., has come to Pasadena to reside. He is a brother of Mrs. J. A. Barker.

There is quite a demand for curio and California souvenirs and the merchants have provided themselves accordingly.

There will doubtless be many visitors at the Wilson primary school today to see what progress the pupils have made during the past year.

Barnhart's meat market team mired in the mud yesterday on the recently graded portion of Raymond avenue north of Colorado street.

At the Wednesday evening meeting at the Universalist Church Mrs. Theresa Vail read an excellent paper on "Religion in Modern Fiction."

Col. Burbridge and Manager DeRogier will journey to Santa Monica today on a tour of inspection and with a view to investing some money.

John F. Barnes is building a barn on his lot on California street near Orange Grove avenue. He will then begin work on a handsome residence.

A party consisting of Mr. Leavens and son, N. W. Beale and B. C. Coates, have gone north to inspect some mines in the vicinity of the Yosemite Valley.

Dr. Conger has received word from Rev. Dr. Fullman that Mrs. Fullman is ill with a gripe at Santa Barbara and that it is doubtful whether he will be able to return to Pasadena.

The handsome Green property on Orange Grove avenue, just south of Colorado street, has been sold to a Chicago gentleman for $13,500. The purchaser will make it his home.

Several boys were noticed a few days ago at the glass insulator on the graph poles. It will go hard with them if H. Willis Hines catches them in the act.

In reply to the correspondent who wants to know how best to preserve the mosses for sending to friends back East, Pasadenaian recommends that the stems be waxed and then stuck in potatoes.

It would be a big improvement if the short sections of wooden sidewalks on Colorado street, between Raymond and Fair Oaks avenues, were replaced by asphalt blocks and laid to correspond with the curbstone level.

A pleasant party was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Craig at her residence on South Mainland avenue in honor of Mrs. Kuntz of Greensburg, Pa., who has spent the winter in Pasadena and will return to her home.

Frank Johnson, while painting a house on North Marengo avenue on Wednesday, fell from the second story to the ground, in company with two pots of red paint. He grew very red over the affair, although one wrist was the only part of his anatomy that suffered.

Special Sale of Clothing. Having decided to give up the clothing department we are making special low prices and will continue to do so until our stock of clothing is sold. This is an opportunity not to be lost. Come early and make your selection. GARDNER & WEBSTER.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, May 21.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Here at the seaside we are having a foretaste of genuine summer weather today, the mercury ranging as high as 80 degrees. The rainfall last night and this morning amounts to a fraction over one-third of an inch. Isaac Johnson of the San Vicente ranch was in town this morning and reports the standing barley badly lodged in some places. He doesn't think the out hay will suffer materially.

Mrs. Gerlach yesterday sold lot T on Third street, between Oregon and Arizona avenues, to Dr. J. J. Place for $1000. It is considered cheap. The doctor will build.

Rev. Mr. Morrison of the M. E. church yesterday conducted the funeral of Otto Orthlander, Company G, First Iowa Cavalry. The remains were interred in the Home Cemetery.

Next Sunday Mr. Morrison will preach the sermon preparatory to the Decoration ceremonies on the 30th. He will also preach a similar sermon in the afternoon at the Home.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a dime social tomorrow (Friday) evening at the corner of Oregon avenue and Third street.

It appears that the beach campers will be on hand in full force this season. We learn from the Y. M. C. A. that the space (except three lots) has been taken on North Beach between the wharf and ninety-nine steps.

A. J. Myers, who has been at Prescott, Ariz., for the past five months, has returned home. He is now on the Y. M. C. A. staff.

W. D. Perkins, who formerly conducted a South American train, came down this morning looking as happy as a travel-worn pilgrim of the desert who had just found an oasis. He has been on the Y. M. C. A. staff, but no starts in for the summer on the Santa Monica run.

Mrs. Senator Cole of Colgrove was among the seaside visitors today.

Mrs. M. L. de Long and Mrs. Cole of the city gave their little ones an outing yesterday, it being the birthday of Mrs. de Long's little boy.

Miss Fannie Shoemaker, the champion female tennis player of Pasadena, is visiting Miss May Carter.

DOR PASCADEROS.

Out of Kilter.

Kilter or kelter was an "Anglicism" long before it was an "Americanism." Skinner, in 1871, has "Kelter; he is not yet in kelter, nondum est paratus." It is also given in a reprint of Ray's collection of 1891. The origin before it points to a Scandinavian kelt, Cf. Dan. kilt, to truss, tucked up, whence E. kilt. Kilt, gives Swedish, kilt, a band for holding up tucked up clothes; kilt, to truss up, tucked up, and fasten. The metaphor is obvious enough.

This word kelter, as it should be spelled, is given in Johnson's Dictionary, and derived from the Danish kelt, to truss, to truss up, whence E. kilt. Kilt, gives Swedish, kilt, a band for holding up tucked up clothes; kilt, to truss up, tucked up, and fasten. The metaphor is obvious enough.

On reference to the publications of the English Dialect society it will be seen that the word is of very general use throughout England. In the neighborhood of Whitby it occurs as a verb and a substantive, and in the mid and east Yorkshire glossaries also; it is used also in west Cornwall, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight. In west Somerset, in Sheffield and in Huddersfield the word means money. These references will be sufficient to show that the expression is not an Americanism, but that the word has found, and still finds, a place in vernacular English.—Notes and Queries.

A Useful Article.

"Why, how odd this had never been thought of before!" said a visitor at a woman's exchange of the city. She had in her hand a pretty knitted article, which was a baby's bottle cozy. For railway travel or to go out with Miss Baby in her own little carriage they are of great service in keeping the milk warm, and also, as they are knitted double, to offer protection against breakage. Some padded ones were also seen, but are not so serviceable as the knitted ones, as they do not so closely to the bottle.—New York Times.

A Book for Bachelors.

The advantages of a pocket that has no sewed seams and cannot rip and that is neat and smooth in the garment are such as will be appreciated by every masculine reader. Such a pocket is the invention of an ingenious Yankee, who calls his device a safety seamless pocket. The peculiarity of these pockets is that they are woven complete in one piece. No stitching or sewing is necessary to make them ready for use, but they are turned out by the loom in the exact form in which they are required for trousers.—New York Journal.

All animals, from ants up to whales and elephants, play together in youth, and some are fond of taking such diversion at intervals through life. One might search the world over and not find more playful creatures than puppies and kittens, but there are other dumb animals which not only frisk about, but actually descend to practical jokes.

Robert Buchanan, the poet, novelist and reviewer, was a poor Scotch village boy a score of years ago, without fame or fortune or prospects of either. The success he has had in literature has been won by hard work and merit, but today he is one of the foremost men in London literary life.

Glad He Was Married.

"Bless the Lord, amen!" cried Louis A. Monroe the other day, after being united in marriage to Mrs. Lucinda Rowe at Detroit. Although the groom is sixty-five years of age this is his first matrimonial venture. The bride is three years his junior.

Prok sign is said to be the thinnest and at the same time one of the toughest leathers known to the tanner.
